

Cecile De Wit

Advisor, Education and Training Policy and Programs

International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO)

Cecile joined the IOSCO General Secretariat in January 2009. Her main role is to organize and coordinate capacity building initiatives for IOSCO members that are in response to their needs and priorities. This includes organizing the IOSCO/PIFS-Harvard Law School Global Certificate Program for Regulators of Securities Markets, the annual IOSCO Seminar Training Program (STP) and related regional STPs, as well as other regional training seminars and joint programs. Furthermore Cecile is involved in IOSCO's investor education and financial literacy related work, including the IOSCO Investor Education Gateway and the IOSCO Committee 8 on Retail Investors. She also supports the work of the Affiliate Members Consultative Committee and coordinates the annual meetings with stakeholders.

Prior to joining IOSCO, Cecile worked in international healthcare management, which entailed building capacity of medical staff in developing countries worldwide, facilitating technical assistance on HIV/AIDS treatment and care, conducting advocacy and awareness campaigns, and setting up a medical quality control system for HIV/AIDS clinics globally.

Cecile holds an MA degree in International Relations from the University of Utrecht, the Netherlands, and an MSc in International Cooperation from the University Complutense of Madrid, Spain.
