

David Boyle

Group Manager, Investor Education

Commission for Financial Capability (CFFC)

A member of the Commission for Financial Capability's Leadership team, David's focus is one of helping all generations prepare for their retirement years. With a focus on the 50 plus age group, his role has been established to help New Zealanders plan and transition from working income, to investment income and how best to get there. With more than 32 years of experience in the financial services industry and a passion for financial capability he brings a wealth of experience to the Commission.

Previously, David was GM Distribution Funds Management for ANZ Wealth and a member of its leadership. Before that he was GM Funds Management and responsible for the end-to-end accountability of their investment product range including KiwiSaver and managed investment funds.

David is a Councillor for Workplace Savings, and has been appointed to the Government steering group that is reviewing the Financial Advisers Act in New Zealand with the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment.

David has also recently accepted a board position with Stand Children's Services previously known as Children's Health Camps.
