

Errol Cova

Head, Investment Institutions and Trust Supervision Department

Centrale Bank van Curaçao en Sint Maarten (CBCS)

Errol Cova has been employed at the Centrale Bank van Curaçao en Sint Maarten (CBCS) since 1998, and is currently the Head of the Investment Institutions and Trust Supervision department. The main area of expertise of Mr. Cova is in the supervision and regulation of securities business and intermediaries, collective investment schemes, fund administrators, trust service providers, and securities exchanges. Mr. Cova has also assisted with the Mutual Evaluation of the Caribbean Financial Action Task Force and the peer review on the Global Forum of Transparency and Exchange of Information of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD).

Mr. Cova is the CBCS's representative on the IFIE/Americas Chapter and currently co-chairs the IFIE/Americas Working Group I, which focuses on FC/IE Content Development and Delivery in growth and/or emerging jurisdictions. This working group is an implementation-focused and collaborative initiative to leverage strengths and resources across jurisdictions/sectors to create core FC/IE Content. Mr. Cova holds a degree in Industrial Engineering and MBA in Finance and International Business.