

Flore-Anne Messy

Head of the Financial Affairs Division and Executive Secretary of the International Network on Financial Education (INFE)

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)

Ms. Flore-Anne Messy is Head of the Financial Affairs Division at the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) and Executive Secretary of the International Network on Financial Education (INFE) created by the OECD in 2008.

She joined the OECD in June 2000 originally to develop the activities of the Secretariat for the Insurance and Private Pensions Committee (IPPC). As such, she was in charge of a series of projects in the financial sector including the governance of insurers; the financial management of large-scale catastrophes; work related to ageing and insurance; private financing of health care as well as financial education. Since 2010, she has been steering the work of the OECD financial education unit (including the OECD/INFE and PISA financial literacy exercises) and subsequently the OECD financial consumer protection activities (including the G20/OECD Task Force on Financial Consumer Protection).

Prior to the OECD she worked at Deloitte and Touche Tomatsu Audit Paris, in the insurance and banking field. She graduated from the Institute of Political Studies of Paris and received her thesis in international economies from University Pantheon-Sorbonne of Paris in 1998.
