

Lawrence Mumina

Head of Investigations, Capital Markets Authority (CMA) Kenya

Lawrence Mumina is the current Head of Investigations at the Capital Markets Authority, Kenya, and has vast experience on capital markets spanning eight years.

Mumina previously worked at the Criminal Investigations Department (CID) in Kenya as an Inspector of Police leading a dedicated team of investigators on intricate investigations for a span of five years.

Mumina also worked in leading audit firms in Kenya as an auditor for a period of five years. He holds a Master's degree in Strategic management and a Bachelor's degree in commerce. He is a certified fraud examiner (ACFE) and a chartered accountant (ACCA). Mumina is happily married to one wife, Mary Muendo, and he is a father of three.