

REDIET ABIY

Head of Programmes
Aflatoun, Netherlands

Rediet Abiy is the Head of Programmes at Aflatoun International. He is responsible for the overall coordination and management of Aflatoun's partnerships at a regional and global level. Currently, Aflatoun works with more than 165 partner organizations in 109 countries reaching 4.5 million children and young people worldwide.

Rediet has MA in Development Studies from the International Institute of Social Studies and a BA in Sociology and Social Administration from Addis Ababa University.