

PETER DOUGLAS, CAIA

Director
CAIA Foundation

Peter Douglas, CAIA, is a director of the CAIA Foundation, having served on the CAIA Association Board of Directors from 2006 to 2014. He is an inaugural-cohort CAIA Charterholder, was the first Charterholder in Singapore. Peter was the inaugural Council Member for Singapore for the Alternative Investment Management Association (AIMA) and was one of the founders of the Financial Planning Association of Singapore (FPAS). Prior to founding his own company in 1998, Peter worked for Aberdeen Asset Management Asia in Singapore, after 10 years at the F&C group of asset management companies, in London and Tokyo. Peter's professional expertise focusses on the research of alternative investment managers and strategies, primarily in Asia and the emerging markets. Peter holds a BA (Hons) from the University of Exeter, and an MBA from INSEAD and has sat on the MBA admissions committee of that school as well as having been secretary of the Singapore alumni association. He is a Singapore Distinguished Financial Industry Certified Professional.