

TIRTA SEGARA

Member of the Board of Commissioners
Indonesia Financial Services Authority (OJK)

Tirta Segara was born in Semarang in 1963. He holds an accounting degree from the University of Diponegoro, Semarang in 1987, and obtained his MBA from The George Washington University, USA in 1994.

He began his career in Bank Indonesia as an officer in the Accounting Department in 1989. After some assignments, in 2007, he was appointed as a Team Leader of Indonesia Financial System Architecture and Financial Sector Assessment Program (FSAP). Three years later, he was promoted as the Head of Research, Development & Regulation in Islamic Banking Department, and became a Director of the International Policy and Relation Group in 2012. In 2014, he was promoted as the Executive Director of the Communication Department, Bank Indonesia.

On July 20, 2017, Tirta Segara was appointed as a Member of the Board of Commissioners OJK in charge of Financial Education and Consumer Protection.