

MYUNGSOO SIM

Deputy Director, International Affairs Department
Korea Financial Investment Association (KOFIA)

Myungsoo Sim graduated from Chonbuk National University in Korea with a BA in International Trade and received an MSc in American Studies from Hanyang University's Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies. He received a second MSc from the University of Reading's Henley Business School in the UK.

Since 2000, Mr. Sim has been a member of the Korea Financial Investment Association (KOFIA), serving in key roles in the International Affairs Department and the Korea Emerging Market Center, and also possesses a great deal of experience with matters related to public relations and the education of financial specialists.