

DAMIAN YIP

Head of Marketing and Programmes
Investor Education Centre, Hong Kong

Damian Yip joined the Investor Education Centre in 2013 where he oversees the marketing planning, education programmes targeted at specific groups and manages relationships with stakeholders such as education institutions, NGOs and employers. His work in the education field includes being a director for higher education at Kaplan and a director for the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA) where he helped employers provide education programmes for their management trainee schemes.

Damian is currently a member of the Education Bureau's Curriculum Development Council/HKEAA Committee on Business, Accounting and Financial Studies, a member of the Business Administration Discipline Advisory Board at the Vocational Training Council, a specialist for the HK Council for Accreditation of Academic and Vocational Qualifications and a steering committee member of the Financial Literacy and Employability Programme for Marginalised Women at The Women's Foundation. He has also been a member of various academic committees at Hong Kong University - SPACE. Damian graduated with a master's degree in Engineering and Management from the University of Birmingham and holds a MBA from the University Strathclyde Business School.